Junior Typists Hot Rod Races

It you hear the Juniors talking about their hot rods, don't be alarmed. You probably won't see them on the streets of Manning, but on the race track in the typing room. For each person who has a perfect 1, 2, or 3 minute writing with 20 words a minute or more, there is a green, yellow, or blue hot rod. Already we have several in the forties in 1 and 2 minute writings. Our drive for speed and then our work on accuracy seem to have paid off. This is quite a different technique from the driver training classes where control is the first importance.

This year our commercial work is taught by Mr. Richard Euchner and Mrs. Gladys Schmidt. There are 3 sections of beginning typing with 55 Juniors enrolled and 1 section of advanced typing consisting of 14 seniors. We have workbooks with many different business forms such as telegrams, invoices, purchase orders bills of lading, interoffice communication and letterhead stationery for advanced students. These make our typing problems more fun as well as a better experience in office typing.

This year 5 new typewriters were bought for the typing room. They are all elite type with open keyboards. Everyone is waiting his turn to get a chance to type on one of these.

King George and Queen Sandra Rule at Christmas Party From The Spotlight

All during the week of December 5-10 one could see anxious, happy and excited faces in the halls of Manning High, Why? The annual Christmas dance was being held on Friday and there were many things to be done.

The student council was especially worried for fear of not having the gym decorated in time, and they were also in charge of the election of the Royal Court, however, by 7 Friday night everything had gone as planned and the dance was under way.

Highlighting the evening was the crowning by Mrs. Gladys Schmidt, of King George Eschenbacher and Queen Sandra Anderson, the queen and their six attendants Jeanette Justice, Lois Vennink, Louise Polking, Lynn Clark, Ronald Frahm, and Eustace Lake, reigned over the first few dances.

Students danced to the music of Manning's High School dance band and Noreen Kay Ramsey, band soloist, sang a clever version of "I Saw Mommie Kissing Santa."

A variety of dances made the evening entertainment, Mary Alice Mohr and Kenneth Dammann, Karen Rix and Bob Laverty, Myrene Rowedder and Darryl Jahn were lucky ones to win prizes in the "gift walk,"

Another added feature was the punch bowl which drew many curious customers, and before the night was over its supply had ceased. By 11:30 the tune of Glenn Miller's "Moonlight Serenade," the Christmas dance of 1951 had ended. And everyone left the beautifully decorated gym with the satisfaction of an evening well spent.
