Lois Vennink Named FFA Sweetheart

Lois Vennink was named FM Sweetheart Friday night during intermission of the FFA dance. Frahm, president of the FFA, presented the gift, which was a FFA Sweetheart Jacket. The attendants were Lois Anthony, Janet Kuhl and Darlys Vollstedt. They received compacts with the FFA emblem inscribed. Miss Vennink and her attendants reigned over several dances.

Decorations consisted of blue and yellow streamers and very nicely decorated tables. To add variety there were many mixers, including the Spotlite dance with prizes going to Janis Groteluschen, Phillip Enenbach, Janice Petersen, James Kasperbauer, Deanna Donaghu and Roger Koepke. The dance was well attended by the students and I'm sure everyone agreed it was really a success, By Betty Foley.

Junior Class Gave "Corliss Archer," Friday

Friday evening the junior class presented "Meet Corliss Archer" under the direction of Bill Robinson. At 8 o'clock the curtain opened to the strains of "My One and Only Heart." Whose heart is that, I wonder? Corliss's?

The entire plot of the play revolved about the trials and tribulations of a teenage girl, Corliss Archer, who was very ably portrayed by Janis Groteluschen. Mr. Archer, her father, was excellently played by Lynn Clark and Louise Polking was simply terrific as Mrs. Archer. Jane Opperman was very good as Louise, the Archer's maid, Mildred, Corliss best friend, was finely portrayed; by Carol Rowedder, and Bill Stein was absolutely tremendous as Dexter Franklin. Mr. and Mrs. Franklin were played by Dale Vollstedt and Bonnie Brus, Mary Helen Stangl was adequately hysterical as Cousin Agnes, Betty, another girl friend, was capably played by Lois Vennink. The doctor and the nurse were portrayed by Merlin Drees and Jeanette Justice. The student director was Kathleen Ploog. It seemed Corliss Archer was quite bored with every-day life so, with the help of Mildred, decided to change the neural course of events by making up stories to put in Corliss' diary. To complicate matters, Cousin Agnes came to visit, read the diary, and believed every word of it. The results that followed were hilarious and the ending was very appropriate to a teenage girl.

Between acts the entertainment was furnished by Betty Foley who played a flute solo, "Sonata No. 2," accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy Groteluschen. Shirley Ruhde sang "My Hero" and "With a Song in My Heart" accompanied by Alice Ahrendsen.

All in all, the play was excellently cast and presented superbly. Mr. Robinson should be given a well-deserved pat on the back for his fine production. Alice Ahrendsen.

27 Boys Start Cage Practice

It is basketball season once again and Coach Tannatt and the team started practice last week. The team is being built around the three returning lettermen, Lyle Frahm, Larry Kasperbauer and Lowell Stribe. The Bulldogs open the season Friday against Lake City on the home court. Twenty-seven boys have reported for practice, namely, Lowell Stribe, Lyle Frahm, Larry Kasperbauer, Bill Richards, Paul Vollstedt, Duane Monson, Junior Lake, Burton Sander, Ronnie Frahm, Lynn Clark, Phil Zerwas, Jack Wagner, Daryl Rowedder, Lauron Musfeldt, Jim Kasperbauer, Dale Vollstedt, Phil Enenbach, Jim Ramsey, Dennis Ramsey, Roger Littell, Gerald Beck, Larry Genzen, Ronnie Peters, Robert Froyd, Gordon Anthony, Ray Stark, Bob Beisch.

Student manager is Wayne Vennink.

Junior Typists Hot Rod Races

It you hear the Juniors talking about their hot rods, don't be alarmed. You probably won't see them on the streets of Manning, but on the race track in the typing room. For each person who has a perfect 1, 2, or 3 minute writing with 20 words a minute or more, there is a green, yellow, or blue hot rod. Already we have several in the forties in 1 and 2 minute writings. Our drive for speed and then our work on accuracy seem to have paid off. This is quite a different technique from the driver training classes where control is the first importance. This year our commercial work is taught by Mr. Richard Euchner and Mrs. Gladys Schmidt. There are 3 sections of beginning typing with 55 Juniors enrolled and 1 section of advanced typing consisting of 14 seniors. We have workbooks with many different business forms such as telegrams, invoices, purchase orders bills of lading, interoffice communication and letterhead stationery for advanced students. These make our typing problems more fun as well as a better experience in office typing.

This year 5 new typewriters were bought for the typing room. They are all elite type with open keyboards. Everyone is waiting his turn to get a chance to type on one of these.

Copy Herein is Compiled By Local Students and is Published As A Weekly Feature of The Monitor To Effect Better Understanding and Closer Relationship Between Student and Resident.

For any taxi service see Rob Neubaum or Eddie Anderson. Could we find out more boys?

Did Cleone Schroeder have fun skating Sunday night? For more Information ask a certain senior boy.

It seems as though Ruth Schmidt has been wearing some very pretty neck scarves for a couple of days? What happened, Smitty?

Larry Jahn, Wilbur Jahn and Daryl Genzen seemed to be enjoying themselves both at and after skating last Sunday night. Could this have been the result of three girls? Such as Marlene Anthony, Shirley Vinke and Sandra Lacy.

Cheral Andresen certainly changes her mind in a hurry or is it just the boys that change, Cheral?

There was the rumor that Roger Vollstedt didn't get in until working time Thursday morning. Could this have been the result of the junior-senior banquet in Audubon, Blackberry?

Super Snooper caught him at it again but the rain didn't. I mean Duane Monson taking Lois Vennink home after the class play. Allen Rix is a good chaperone. Isn't he, Duane?

USELESS MISINFORMATION

Afterthought - A mad desire to shut your mouth after you have put your foot in it.

Wolf - One who thinks he's entitled to life, liberty and the happiness of pursuit.

Life - An eternal struggle to keep one's earning capacity up in one's yearning capacity.

Stethoscope - A spyglass for looking into people's chests with your ears.

A good driver - One who obeys the traffic rules and is quick enough to dodge those who don't.

Umbrella - The only thing anyone can still put away for a rainy day.

Golf - The game that turned the cows out of the pasture and let the bull in.

Woman - A person with a nice sense of rumor.

Introducing

Lois Struve, who has light brown hair, greenish brown eyes and is 5'4" tall. Lois is taking a general course and she says her favorite subject is speech because it will help her in later life.

Lois is very active in curricular activities. She was a cheerleader for four years, in student council for two years, on the Spotlight staff for two years and on the annual staff this year. Lois is a baton twirler and she has entered contest as a solo three years and in an ensemble three years. She was a member of glee club and mixed chorus. She was an attendant of the Comet Queen, and was queen of the 1952 Junior and senior banquet. Lois belongs to the G.A.A. and holds the office of vice-president. She took part in the class play in her Junior year and in the operetta in her senior year. She has also been a member of Quill and Scroll, an honorary society for high school students. She belongs to the pep squad, and was also a waitress at the Junior senior banquet.

As her favorite sport, Lois lists basketball, because it is interesting and easy to watch her favorite song is "Forgive Me," her favorite food is fried chicken, and her favorite color is blue.

Lois is undecided as to what she will do after graduation, but she says she would like to do some office work. Good luck, Lots, in whatever your decision may be.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What are your plans after school is out?

Donna Joens: I am going to work for Dad and maybe later on we'll go on a trip, at least I am hoping to.

Allen Vennink: Work on the farm.

Betty Stuhr: I really don't have any plans now. I had planned on working at the hospital in Denison but I'm not now. I'll probably just stay home.

Roger Vollstedt: Working at Thrifty's will occupy most of my time after getting back from boys' state.

Donna Spies: Not much of anything. I'll just help around home unless I can get a job somewhere.

Wilbur Jahn: Stay home and work on the farm and maybe go on a trip. I hope.

Dorothy Hammer: Oh, I suppose loaf around home a little or get I job somewhere.

Dunne Monson: Y'know I've just decided to buy all the diamonds there are in the world.

Allen Rix: You're Crazy. What makes YOU think I'd sell them?

Meet The Senior

One of the busiest senior boys in the Manning High School is Bob Hansen, the eldest son of Mr. and Mr. John R. Hansen. At the beginning of his senior year, Bob was elected class president by his classmates.

Bob, another one of our taller lads, is 6' 1" tall. He has blue-gray eyes and light brown hair. Bob is taking the college preparatory course and names physics as his favorite subject because it deals with science and mathematics.

Bob is an "honor" student, and has been a member of Quill and Scroll during his junior and senior years. He is a member of the "Annual Staff" and serves as assistant business manager of it this year.

The success of the first school carnival, which was held at the Manning High School this year, was greatly due to Bob's excellent management. He headed the carnival committee as chairman. Recently we discovered he could do quite well as an actor. In the Junior-senior class play "Men Are Like Streetcars," he played the role of Mr. Mason, the father, very effectively.

In the essay contest "America Is Everybody's Business," which was sponsored by the V.F.W. Auxiliary, Bob's essay was judged second best from the seventeen entries submitted.

Throughout his high school years he has been active in instrumental music. He was a member of the concert and marching band for four years and pep and dance band for three years. He played' cornet solos two years and was a member of the brass quartet and trumpet trio each of his four high school years. As a high school athlete Bob was a member of the track team for three years. He was a member of the basketball and football teams in his freshman, sophomore and junior years. Due to a slight case of polio the preceding summer, Bob did not play football or basketball his senior year. Instead, he was appointed and served as Student Manager of both the football and basketball team.

Bob's favorite pastime is hunting and fishing, and his favorite sport is swimming "because it is cool and invigorating." Spare ribs, and the song, "Blue Tango" also rate tops with him.

After graduation Bob will take a trip to California. In the fall he will enter Iowa State College and major in engineering.

This 17 year old senior, Bill Crane, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Crane, bill, an agriculture student, stands 5'10" tall and has dark brown hair and brown eyes. During his freshman, sophomore, and part of the Junior year he attended St. Ann's parochial school in Vail, where he lettered in basketball and baseball each year. As a Junior, Bill was elected class president. Since the school didn't have an agriculture elective, Bill joined the Vail boy's 4-H club. During his membership he held the offices of president, vice-president and historian in the local club. He was also vice-president of the county 4-H there.

When asked how he likes school in Manning, Bill replied, "The Irish town of Vail is a nice little town and St. Ann's isn't a big school but it couldn't be beat, but I also like Morning, everyone is swell to me."

Among his many favorites, Bill listed the subject agriculture, because It will help him In later years. And the sport, baseball, simply because he enjoys the game. The color blue and the song. "Little Slow Poke," are also favorites of his. Right now, Bill is undecided as to what to do after graduation. By the way, he detests strangers who ask a lot of questions.

Snoogie kept his nose out of other people's nuttiness, so he doesn't have much to say this week.

Roger Vollstedt's interest seems to be in Audubon. We know her last name is Hansen, but could you tell us her first name, Blackberry?

Congratulations, Miss Hamann, the Carnival Queen of 1932. Also congratulations to the runner-ups, Lois Vennink and Janice Popp.

We are sure that everyone enjoyed the school carnival and wish to thank everyone who helped make it n success.

Seen Friday night after the carnival were Ruth Schmidt and Gary Nady? We wonder where they were seen before. No hard feelings are meant but this column has to have something to fill up apace.

Anyone who had their fortune told Friday night knows just what to expect in the future, but do they all want it to be the way the palm reader says?

It's that time of the year again! We don't mean time for income tax to be filed, but the time for the boys' high school basketball tournaments. Of course everyone is for their home town team, hoping that they will make it to the state tournament.

The fans follow their team to the regular season games, then into the tournaments, still hoping that the team will come through on top. The team has done a wonderful job this year and so have the

Let's keep showing them that we are for them all the way.

Large Attendance Greeted First School Carnival Friday (From The Spot-Spotlite)

Adele Gray

Manning High School held its first carnival Friday, February 29. The big affair started at 6:00 p.m. and lasted until 12:00 p.m.

There were many stands and concessions in the gym and basement operating throughout the evening supplying entertainment for the many visitors who patronized them generously,

Cakes and pies were donated by parents of students and these were used in the pie eating contest and cake walk.

Fortunes were told by Helen (Mrs. Ray) Pratt, in the fortune-telling tent in the southeast corner of the gymnasium. Movies were held in the science room for children. Lunch was sold in the bookkeeping room and a T-V show took place in the English room. Participants in the T-V show were Marlene Anthony, Phyllis Zerwas, Shirley Watson, Duane Monson, Roland Valentine, Allen Rix, Richard Mullennax, Genelle Kruse, Rita Theobald, Theresa Theobald and Louis Mohr. The night club was held in the FFA rooms. Featured in it were Diane Rix, Mary Lou Foley, Cheral Andresen, Rosemary Bock, Merlene Thompson, Donna Joens, Corrine Sander, Barbara Bauer and the dance band, consisting of Dick Zerwas, Lyle Frahm, Richard Rix, Billie Jensen, Claus Bunz, and Orville W. Harris.

Judge Kuhl, presiding in the Kangaroo Court, tried many cases for law-breaking. Boxing and Wrestling

Boxing was one of the interests at 7:00. At that time there were four bouts: Mickey Schurer vs. David Sextro, Marvin Vennink vs. Stanley Beck, Bill Richards vs. Fredric Dethlefsen and Pete Petersen vs. Bill Crane.

Wrestling was held at 7:45 with four bouts: Lenny Carstens vs. Butch Jensen, Gary Kuhn vs. Wesley Cooper, Raymond Christensen vs. Larry Kasperbauer, and Merlin Ramsey vs. Norbert Stoberl.

Wrestling at 10:15 consisted of four bouts: Butch Jensen vs. Billy Donaghu, Jim Kasperbauer vs. Dick McConnell, Wayne Vennink vs. Dick Dethlefsen, and Myron Bogatzke vs. Bob Hansen.

Boxing at 9:30 consisted of four bouts, those being: Hans "Junior" Bonnesen vs. Gary Monson, Donny Callen vs. Roland Kuhl, Art Fuller vs. LaRue Hodne, and Art Zerwas vs. Don Lacy. Gary Nady was in charge of the wrestling and boxing. Votes could be cast for the popularity queen from 6:00 until 10:30. Bob Hansen, the carnival chairman, had the privilege of crowning Miss Myra Hamann, the Carnival Queen. Lois Vennink had the next number of the votes and Janice Popp was third. All three received cash prizes.

Door prizes were given at the end of the evening. Cleone Schroeder received a trouble light, John Wagner got a step ladder and Bud Wagner a table lamp. Orville W. Harris was also awarded a special door prize. Ray Pratt served as announcer for the evening.

Proceeds of the carnival will go to various activity funds of the school.

SPOTLITE ON THOUGHTS

Women excel more in literary judgment than in literary production - they are better critics than authors

The bold defiance of a woman is the certain sign of her shame when she has once ceased to blush, it is because she has too much to blush for. Talleyrand.
Congratulations Miss Phyllis Porter.

That's quite a diamond you are wearing. We all wish you all the happiness you deserve.

By the looks of Allen Jensen's eye, Janice Popp must be pretty rough on him. Better not hit quite so hard next time, Janice!

Genelle Kruse acquired a new ring at Christmas time. It's the wrong color, but she's wearing it on the right finger. You may draw your own conclusions.

If Allen Eich wants to know where his class ring is, he'd better look on the ring finger of a certain freshman girl.

Ruth Schmidt must have a collection of male admirers. Where did you get the wrist watch, Ruth?

Alice Ahrendsen and Loyce Frank have been attending some shows in Carroll lately. The fellows were from Dexter, weren't they, kids?

Russell Spies seems to know all about the vital business fundamentals. This is due to the fact that Millie Vennink attends the Commercial Extension in Omaha. Marlene Nulle is receiving some long letters from Bob Jones. He must have a lot to tell her. Wonder what it is?

Larry Kasperbauer and Shirley Ruhde are still getting along pretty well, according to the latest reports.

Cheral Andresen had some parties during the holidays. Had snoopie been there this column would be much longer. Snoopie and Company.

BAKE SALE JANUARY 19

Bake Sale January 19

The Junior class is sponsoring a bake sale January 19 at Struve's garage. They will have a lot of good things to eat.

TEEN CHATTER

Wallace Schroeder: You sure drive well. Louise - you handle that car like a veteran."

Louise Mohr: Thanks Wallie, but how do you know? Did you ever see me handle a veteran?"

Miss Myra Hamann: "Jackie, don't you know Lincoln's Gettysburg Address."

Jack Warner: "I didn't even know he lived there."

Merle McKim had been out hunting when he was thrown over a fence by an enraged bull. H had just recovered when he noticed the bull pawing the ground and tossing his head.

"If it wasn't for your bowin' and scrapin'," said Merle, "I'd think you threw me over on purpose."

Lois Anthony: "I'm forgetting men."

Alice Ahrendsen: "So am I. I'm for getting a couple of them as soon as we can."

Norman Andresen: "I'm afraid Leon Hugeback will be in the hospital a long, long time."

Bob Grundmeier: "Goodness, did you see the doctor?"

Norman: "No, I saw the nurse."

Gwanetha Horbach's main interest next year will be climbing the social ladder - lad by lad!!

DECLAM WORK BEGINNING

With the declamatory contest approaching, all students going out for extra-curricular activity are studying hard in order to have their selection memorized by January 29. This year there are many more contestants than in previous year with 22 freshmen, three sophomores, five juniors and three seniors.

Those participating in oratorical are Janis Groteluschen, Patty Kasperbauer, Susan Brandt, LaRue Hodne, Richard Mullenax, Phyllis Zerwas and Shirley Watson; dramatic Rosemary Bock, Bonnie Brus, Doris Christensen, Patty Kasperbauer, Judy Vollmer, Alice Ahrendsen, and Loyce Frank.
