Optimism High For Manning Girls

The Manning Lady Bulldog basketball team is looking to improve on their 12-8 mark of last year. There is a good chance they could do so, since the Lady Bulldogs return six letterwinners to this year's team. Returning letterwinners include seniors, Teri Kusel, Alison Beaver, Heidi Ringgenberg, Nikki Foutch, and Jeanie Myer, and junior Jodi Jensen, all of whom started some of the games last year. The Lady Bulldogs ended in a third place tie in the Boyer Valley Conference last year.

Other team members who could see playing time are junior forwards Julie Dunshee and Amy Schwiesow; sophomore guards Jodee Rauch and Renee Rosonke; and sophomore forwards Jenni Ramsey and Kristi Herbers. Dunshee will also play in the guard court.

"All the guards are pretty even and all will play," said new head coach Scott Larson. "The forwards will be the three seniors, Kusel, Ringgenberg and Beaver."

Kusel, who averaged 29 points per game last year, was a second team all-conference selection, while fellow forwards, Ringgenberg and Beaver, were honorable mention. Kusel was also selected Most Valuable Player.

"A big strength of ours is going to be the experience we have in both courts. the forwards have been playing together for three years now," commented Larson. Larson is assisted by Kathy Conroy.

Leading the guard court is Nikki Foutch, who averaged 4.1 rebounds and 1 steal per game. Jodi Jensen added 3.1 rebounds per game last year.

"I'm worried most about the girls adjusting to a new coach and a different system," added Larson.

The Lady Bulldogs participated in a scrimmage with Glidden-Ralston and Elk Horn-Kimballton last Saturday.

"I thought the girls worked well together. They began to communicate better as the scrimmage went on. I was pleasantly surprised," said Coach Larson. "From what I've read the conference is going to be pretty much a toss-up."

The Manning girls are looking for their first basketball conference title.

Other members of the team include Carina Bjorndahl, Wendy Ahrendsen, Stacie Odendahl, Brenda Puck, Suzette Miller, Monica Stangl, Amy Bruch, Robin Schwiesow, Nancy Hansen, Tina Weller, Joy Irlbeck, Shane Keegan, Mary Miller and Shannon Dammann.

Manning Boys Look To Improve

The Manning boys' basketball team is looking forward to their season with anxious anticipation as they try to improve on last year's 6-14 record. The Bulldogs are led by head coach Brad Benton, who is in his fourth year at the helm. Benton is assisted by Scott Robinson. "One of our goals this year is to improve on last year's performance and at least break the .500% mark. I will be somewhat disappointed if we don't," said Benton.

One of the reasons for Benton's optimism is the return of three letterwinners, two of whom were starters. Those returning include seniors Matt Campbell and Ronnie Wiese and junior Matt Drees, all of whom are good rebounders and will see action in the post areas. Drees was honorable mention all-conference and voted Most Valuable Player last year.

"The strong point on our team this year is going to be the inside game. We ought to be able to pull down a lot of rebounds this year, and score lots of points inside," added Benton.

While the post position is fairly well experienced, the back court will be filled with new faces. Among them are juniors Kevin Weiskircher, Lonnie Miller and Sean Forman. Seniors Scott Mills and Rich Sorensen, juniors Rodney Hinners and Rich Stacey, and sophomore Mike Halbur will also see action at the guard position. Back up post players include senior Jens Lichte and junior Mike Kasperbauer.

"Our real weak spot is going to be lack of experience at the guard. In fact, there is hardly no one who has substantial varsity experience," commented Benton.

Of those returning players, Ron Wiese is the leading scorer, averaging 14.1 points per game last year. Right behind him was Matt Drees with 12.1 points and 10.9 rebounds per game. Drees also had 3.5 blocks per game.

Manning will once again participate in the Boyer Valley Conference. Last year the Bulldogs placed fifth with a 5-5 record. "The conference should be fairly tough this year. Everyone's talking about Woodbine, and IKM and Lo-Ma, along with Schleswig, will be able to put five good players on the floor."

Manning competed in an informal scrimmage last Saturday in Manning. Those attending, besides Manning, were Glidden-Ralston and Ar-We-Va. "We played better than I had anticipated. We started off a little rocky, but we moved well on offense. We need to work on our boxing out, however," said Benton.

Other members of the Manning basketball team include sophomores Brad Eischeid, Kenny Venteicher, Terry Dammann, Scot Irlbeck, Brent Moore, and Dave Neil; and freshmen Don Beck, John Gruhn, Travis Doyel, Eric Moore, Dan Rauch, Jason Hinners and Nate Rohe. Managers are Dave Rundell and Dave Steinbron.
